A Business Man

Can pack his grip and travel anywhere, without other help than a well filled purse provides. This is not always true as regards ladies and children, especially if the journey be long. Accordingly the Santa Fe Route has inaugurated a series of weekly excursions to Pacific Coast, leaving Kansas City every Friday evening, in charge of experienced employees of the company. Invalids, and ladies traveling alone or with children, are shown every possible attention en route. The cheapest rate tickets that can be bought to California will be honored on this train. An extra charge of $3.00 is made for use of Pullman tourist sleeper, equipped with mattresses, sheets, blankets, curtains, etc. Call on ore.

The friends of Judge J. Houston Goodwin are quietly talking up his chances of securing the nomination for sheriff. While we wish Judge Goodwin well, we greatly fear that his party will never recognize his useful devotion. He has worked long and hard for the mossback party, but many of them are ungrateful, and when the pie is distributed he will be minus his share. Unless his friends are very active, he need not hope for any recognition.
